

Jupiter & Maruyama Cable Landing Station

Connecting to the world from Maruyama CLS in Japan!

SoftBank is now ready to provide the latest Subsea cable and C/S colocation service!

Submarine Cable “Jupiter”

- In addition to the existing facilities, new 4th building “D” is ready from December 2019
- Provides colocation service and connectivity to submarine cables and domestic backhaul for metro area of Tokyo.

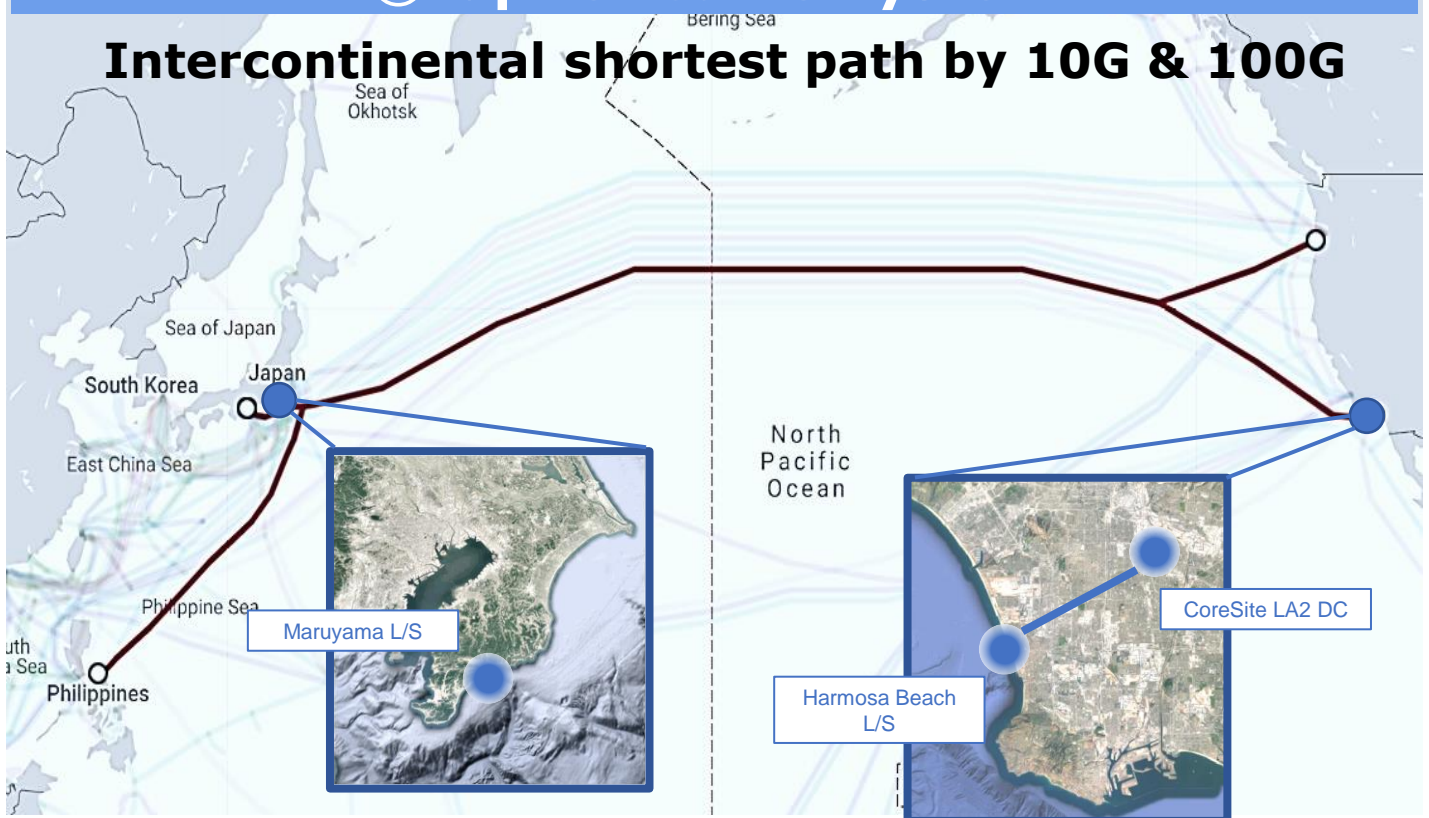

Maruyama C/S New Building D

- 5 fiber pairs, more than 60Tbps capability as a transpacific route
- Landed at Maruyama cable station operated by SoftBank.

① Jupiter Cable System

Intercontinental shortest path by 10G & 100G

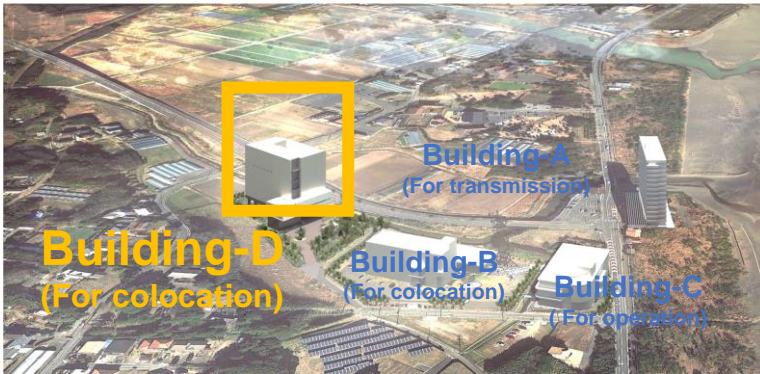

Landed and terminated at Maruyama C/S

Landed at Harmosa Beach L/S

Terminated at Downtown LA

② Maruyama C/S

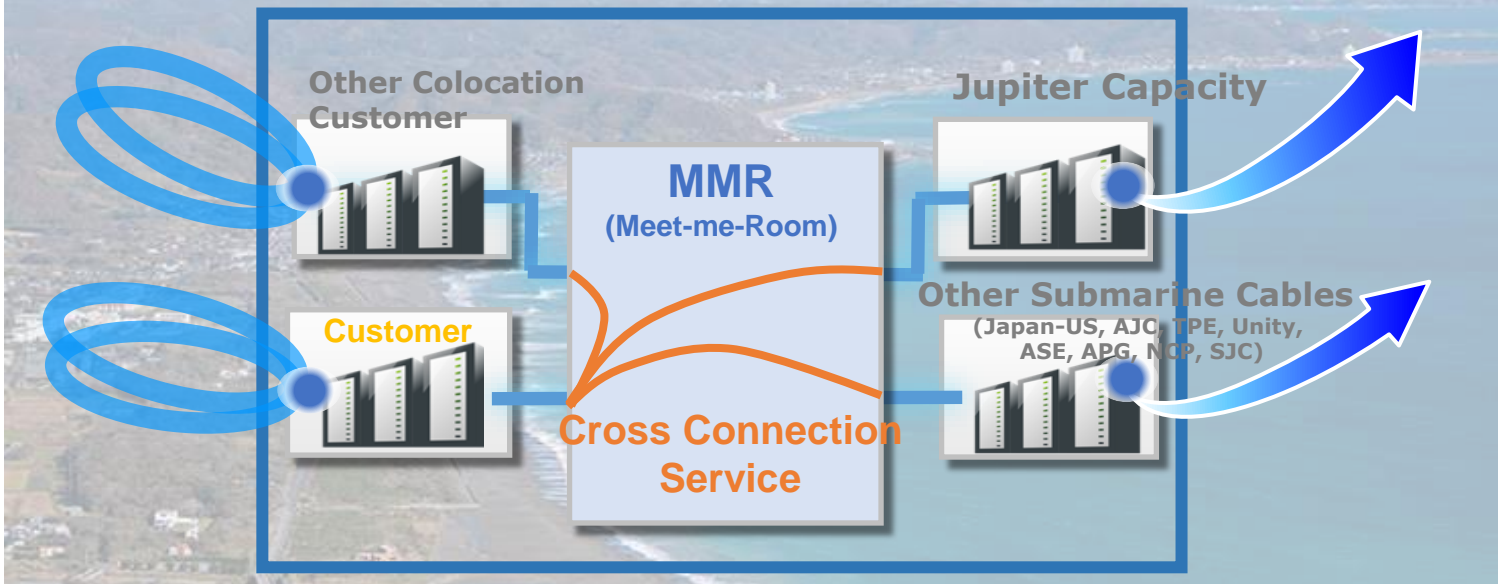

New "Building-D" for Colocation Service

- Space
 - 500m² (≒5400 sq ft) × 3 Floors
- Power
 - 2,000 kVA
- Customer
 - More than 30 existing customers
- Security
 - Face Authentication System
 - QR code
- Disaster Prevention:
 - Piloti and 10m height column structure for Tsunami
 - Anti-Seismic for earthquake

③ Unique point SoftBank can only provide

Major global players are already using SoftBank's Maruyama CLS services. You can connect to all over the world through our services.

Please Contact:
SoftBank Corp.
10847120_p@g.softbank.co.jp